Gold in Ohio.

Several of our exchanges announce the fact that gold has been discovered in various counties of Ohio, but none as yet in sufficient quantities to pay for the working. The precious metal does exist, however, in every hill and valley of the Buckeve State. It lies dormant in every scre of land, and abounds in every rivulet and stream. No land under the broad canopy of heaven is more prolific of the auriferous treasure. You broad expansive field of waving corn, nodding a grateful recognition to the breeze, and humming a vernal melody with its myriad graceful leaves, is a gold mine-richer, far richer than ninety-nine one hundredths of adventurers find in the mountain canons of a distant land. Every tree in yonder forest - their stalwart arms stretching toward the sky, and sturdy trunks weathering each blast that blows - is a lead of gold, needing only the skill and labor of the yeoman to fashion it into coin. You rolling river, bearing on its surface countless argosies freighted with untold wealth, rushing from its birth amid the snows of the Alleghanies to lave the shores of the orange and the sugar cane - that, too, is a mine, compared with which a thousand Australias would sink into insignificance.

It is time, then, that this following in the hue and cry of "gold in California," "gold in Australia," "gold at Pike's Peak," had ceased, and that the citizens of Ohio should delve successfully at home for that for which so many seek in vain abroad. One-half the energy, one-half the zeal, one-half the enterprise, and onehalf the ambition which have characterized the exertions of those who are now languishing in auriferous lands, many of them without the means of subsistence from day to day, would have placed them far beyond the reach of want, at home. If the thousands of famished men and women who are now rushing pell-mell in return from Pike's Peak, almost fighting for food and raiment, had only directed a tithe of their enterprise in a proper channel, they might each and all be settled in a comfortable home, and surrounded at least with the necessities, if not the luxuries of life. Try it, ye men of iron wills and willing hands, who would seek for wealth abroad; pull off your coats, roll up your sleevs, seize the first implement of labor within your reach, and with it carve a fortune in your native

Homes for the Prople. - Chesp and comfortable homes for our citizens of slender means, may no doubt be secured by the successful establishment of properly organized street passenger railroads, by various routes through the city, communicating with points eight or ten miles distant.

A capitalist who lately visited Cincinnati, St. Louis, and Chicago, with a view of determining in which of these cities a permanent investment of his means should be made, decided in favor of Cincinnati. He found here, that nearly every mechanic had a home, and that a workshop was found on every street, even up to the hillside.

The rapid sales of lots in the western Wards intimate that the workers want comfortable homes at more reasonable prices than at the rapidly increasing figures asked and obtained for real estate "down town."

Let us then avail ourselves of cheap homes, amid the grateful scenes of the country, with pure air, and room for gardens, reached with a small cost by a line of City Railroad cars.

We trust that we may, before another Summer passes, see hundreds of laborers passing in the cars to and from comfortable homes at all points in the vicinity of

Cincinnati. A CONVERTED BRAHMIN IN TOWN .- A large audience was in attendance last night, in the Unitarian Church, to see and hear Jaguth C. Gaugooly, a native Hindoo-a converted Brahmin. He is of dark complexion-bronze tinge, and straight black hair. He was educated for a priest of the Hindoo religion, and was reputed as an Oriental scholar. Destring to qualify himself for preaching his faith, he read some tracts propared by Christians, and in due time became a convert, and at once desired to visit America. Two years since he came to this country, and having devoted himself to the Unitarian faith, will, after another year spent

He lectures to night in the Unitarian Church, on the manners and customs of the Hindoos. The fielms (Ala.) papers mention the arrival at that place of the camels, designed for planters in the vicinity. They are to be used for plawing and all kinds of heavy work on the plantation.

COVINGTON NEWS.

THERE was but one case before his Honor, Mayor Foley, Sunday morning. Augustus Corry, for drunkenness and disorderly conduct, was fined $10 and costs.

Duning the sale of furniture at the Jones House, on last Saturday, a very amusing incldent occurred. A large number was present at the sale, and when an adjournment was made to the third story of the building, the rush was so great as to cause the paper on the walls to crack, which created a general alarm and in an instant a wild rush was made for the doors and windows. The loud voice of the auctioneer, calling on all to be quiet, soon restored order, when all indulged in genuine

THE fire yesterday morning, between one and two o'clock, was occasioned by the partial burning of the livery stable and omnibus depot, on Madison, between Fifth and Sixth streets, owned by Messrs. Clayton & Young. The fire is supposed to be the work of an incendiary, as it was communicated to the building through an open window in the second story. Loss supposed to be between three and four hundred dollars, which is covered by in-

Our Fire Department, for efficiency, we do not believe can be excelled in any other city, East, West, North or South, Notwithstand ing the large amount of combustible material in the building burnt yesterday morning, which caused the fiames to spread rapidly, the firemen, soon after their arrival, had the fire under subjection. It is a matter of surprise to many that the adjoining buildings were saved. All honor to our Fire Department. THE Catholic Benevolent Association of this city chartered, yesterday, the steamers Champion, No. 3, Caledonia and Fairy Queen, for the purpose of conveying all who wished to be present at the laying of the corner stone of a new Catholic Church about to be erected in Augusta, Kentucky. A large crowd was, doubtless, expected to be present, judging from one order which they gave for seven thousand two hundred bottles of Sutton & Co's "pop."

Fire Insurance.

We can not withhold our meed of acknowl edgement for the commendable action of the various Insurance Companies, as indicated be-

Were such examples of quick and satisfactory settlements oftener practised, without the continued "higgling," so often resorted to by some companies, greater confidence in Insurance would be enstalled in the public mind.

As with an eagle's eye, we have watched the ÆTNA, which has seemed to us, in its giant strength overshadowing all others. To our minds, its ACTIONS as exhibited in multitudinous places in different sections of the United States, during the lastfew months, have redeemed itself, and now, without reservation, we commend it to the patronage of every body-every where, except to those of evil intent. Herewith is the article alluded to above, from the Home News, Marietta, Ohio, of Saturday, May 28, 1859:

HONORABLE PROMPTITUDE.-The agents of HONORABLE PROMPTITUDE.—The agents of the various foreign Insurance Companies who congregated here after the recent fire, have completed their business, settled their policies, and returned to their homes. The honorable and prompt manner in which they have ad-justed and paid their losses, commends them warmly to the confidence of our citizens. While we would be glad at all times to see them, we hope they may never have corrected to the hope they may never have occasion to visit Marietta on a similar errand. A list of the

COLUMBUS NEWS. AT THE CAPITAL.

BY OUR OWN REPORTER.

SUPREME COURT-NO DECISION BEFORE MON DAY .- The rumor having been generally circulated that the Court would decide the Bushnell-Langston, and the Johnson Achees corpus cases, at ten A. M. this morning, some excitement existed on the streets and in publie places. With a feeling of interest in the result, the Court of Common Pleas last evening adjourned to Monday morning, and at an early hour the Supreme Court room in the capitol was thronged. At half-past ten Chief Justice Swan entered the Court room, and without formally opening Court informed the crowd in attendance that the cases would a tot be disposed of until Monday at three P. M., assigning as a reason that it was the intention to deliver written opinions, and the time since the arguments had proved insufficient. A large number of ladies were in attendance. and the disappointment was felt to be serious. What will be done in the premises? is a question frequently asked, and seldom answered to the satisfaction of the questioner. It is said that the Court will release the prisoners; that the Federal official will re-arrest, or attempt to do so when a "mill" may follow in which political feelings and prejudices will be the backers. For our own part, we anticipate no such result. As we have before predicted, the Court finds it a difficult matter to arrange the program me so that the tastes of all may be suited. "Two heads are better than one," ergo, three hole are botter than two; but the trio would much prefer having the twain united with it, if never after wards, at least in this perplexing predicament when the eyes of the citizens of Ohio, of all parties, classes and casts are directed to the Supreme Bench for the decision of a point which, be it what 't may, must effect the entire community and not o.nly the political party which feels its infirmities and would show another shock, but the party dominant of whose completion the Supreme Bench takes its bue.

REPUBLICAN DELEGATE CONVENTION .- The orimary delegates of Franklin county assembled at City Hall this afternoon, for the purpose of appointing eight delegates to the Republican State Convention, which convenes in this city on Thursday of next week. H. P. L. Baler, Esq., was called to the Chair, and Theodore Comstock, Esq., appointed Secretary. Prairie, Brown, Clinton, Washington, Perry, Norwich and Jefferson townships were not represented, and other townships only partially. On motion of Eli F. Jennings, Esq., those townships only partially represented were permitted to fill the delegation, and in cases where they could not be filled, delegates present were authorized to cast the full vote. The following are the delegates appointed : C. N. Olds, F. C. Sessions, Henry Miller, H. D. Cooke, Lucien Buttles, Jas. McFerson, J. B. Potter, and John Clark. Eight alternates were appointed, and Convention adjourned.

COMMON PLEAS.-Yesterday the case of Lehew. a minor, against Koons et. al., School Directors of District No. 3, Plain Township, was tried and submitted to the jury. The action was brought to recover damages laid at $50, and caused by the refusal of defendants to extend to plaintiff the benefit of the common school. The defense replied that plaintiff was at the time a non-resident of the district and county and that they were not bound to extend the privilege claimed. The jury will return a sealed verdict to the clerk.

CONTESTED ELECTION.—The Investigation met again last evening before the Mayor, and four witnesses were examined, all touching the veracity of the witness Lewis. Three of them would believe the witness under oath, and so would the fourth, provided, and "these letters are on these express condition," that said Lewis be not intoxicated at the time of desposing, as in that event, from an extensive acquaintance, witness is of opinion clearly, that Lewis does not realize the difference between truth and falsity.

STOCK FOR THE EAST .- During the present month one hundred and nineteen car-loads of cattle, comprising Ohio, Indiana, and Kentucky stock, have been forwarded east over the Cleveland, Columbus & Cincinnati Road. Add to this sixteen double-deck car-leads of sheep and hogs, and we have an exhibit of transportation which speaks well for the stock interests of the country, and for the reliability and cheapness of the route.

St. Patrick's Church Concest .- On Tuesday, the 7th prox., there will be a Sacred Concert at St. Patrick's Church. The new organ lately received, is unsurpassed by any instrument of the kind in the country, and is presided at by an accomplished performer. The church choir and a large orchestra will assist in A very large stock of French Chintz of best fabrics the exercises.

COWHIDING .- A case of this kind occurred last evening at a fashionable hotel, in which a a lady sought either to vindicate her honor or turn society disgusted away. Which she succeeded in accomplishing we need not state.

Balcon Ascension .- Prof. B. F. H. Lynn, of Erie, Pa., local of the Dispatch, proposes to make a baloon ascension from this city one day next week. Wm. H. Harris. Esq., his agent, is in the city to-day.

ONCENNATI, February 18, 1859.

About a month age I called at Dr. Aver's "Throat and Lung Institute," So West Fourth street, for treatment for Tonslitis and Chronis Inflammation of the Throat. The tonsis and uvala (or palate) were so much enlarged that there seemed to be but one course to pursue, and that was to cut them off; this I had been told by other physicians, who had also candidly told me they could not cure me. Dr. Ayer made a careful examination and pronounced excision unnecessary, and prescribed Medicated Inhaitton and topical applications, with general treatment, and the result is a perfect transper! The inflammation has been allayed, and the tonsils and palate reduced to their natural size and position. I now have no sorseness or difficulty whatever of the throat, and year. I cordially commend Dr. Ayer as askillful and competent physician in his speciality, and worthy of all confidence. His mode of treatment is rational, pleasant, and certainly in my case successful, and I have every reason to believe the Doctor is equally successful in all other cases while I have been under treatment at the Institute.
